

Candidates for the Board 2024

McKenzie Clark was born and raised in Greensboro, NC, but has always had ties to the Cumberland Valley. His maternal grandmother attended Carlisle High School, and three of his aunts still live in Mechanicsburg.

McKenzie graduated from Wake Forest University in 2007 then served as a Peace Corps Volunteer in Kazakhstan for three years, teaching English and American Culture. He moved to Carlisle in 2011 to attend the Dickinson School of Law, and he now operates a solo practice representing clients in family and criminal law matters. He also serves as a Judge Advocate in the U.S. Army Reserve.

McKenzie and his wife, Katie, have been members of UUCV since 2013, and they were married in March 2014 by Rev. Aija. They have two children, Rory (6) and Grant (3).

Susan Green is originally from the St. Louis area but spent most of her adult life in Texas. She and Mark raised 3 daughters at Emerson UU church in Houston.

She is a retired library director, but works part-time at Fredricksen Library. She and Mark moved to Carlisle 2.5 years ago to be nearer to 2 of their daughters. She enjoys reading and playing board games.

Primajoy Evans Ramalingam (she/her) was born in Philipsburg, Pennsylvania and currently resides in Mechanicsburg Pennsylvania with her husband, two teenagers and two dogs. Graduated with a BA in Mathematics at Messiah College and Master of Education from Penn State University, as well as completed the Wharton Executive Education CFO course.

Primajoy has worked as High School Teacher, adult Information Technology educator, HR Manager and Chief Financial Officer. In partnership with her spouse they founded LingaTech, Inc. a small diverse, central PA technology company.

Primajoy started attending a Unitarian Universalist of Harrisburg church in 1992 for several years and then found her way to UUCV in 2010 and shortly after became a member.

Many Sundays you can find Primajoy downstairs working with UUCVs amazing middles. Over the years Primajoy has served as chairperson of the RE Committee, SCRT and Personnel Committees. Also loves volunteering in the UUCV booth at area pride fests along with her teens.

Primajoy loves learning, reading, gardening, traveling, playing tennis, sitting in the backyard enjoying the creek or just spending time with family and friends.
